Our Gifts

A committed vestry that works well together
Effective lay-led committees, including Stewardship, Budget & Finance, and Outreach
A small but diverse congregation
Sound finances over a long period of time
Buildings & Grounds in an excellent state of repair
A varied and integrated music program
An experienced self-motivated staff
A variety of worship opportunities
Prayer book based liturgy
Broad lay participation in worship services through our worship teams
A year-long program of fellowship events
Long-term tenants
Good community relationships

Our Challenges

Declining membership & pledging
An aging congregation

What we are lacking

A program of religious education for children and youth

What we are seeking

Someone deeply grounded in faith
Someone who relates well to both the very young and very old
Someone who preaches from the heart
Someone able to offer sensitive and compassionate pastoral care
Someone who works well with others and is willing to listen
Someone who can motivate others to do God's work in and beyond the church
Someone who is comfortable leading adult education and bible study
In short, someone with vision and leadership skills to move us forward
